

1 IN THE GRAND COURT OF THE CAYMAN ISLANDS

2 CAUSE NO: POCL 8 of 2014

3
4 IN THE MATTER OF AN APPLICATION FOR A RESTRAINT ORDER PURSUANT TO 5 SECTION 45 OF THE PROCEEDS OF CRIME LAW ("POCL") (2016 REVISION)

6
7 AND IN THE MATTER OF THE ORDER OF THE COURT DATED 18 DECEMBER 2015

8
9 AND IN THE MATTER OF:

- 10
11 1. ROBERT BANDFIELD
12 2. ANDREW GODFREY
13 3. KELVIN LEACH
14 4. ROHN KNOWLES
15 5. BRIAN DE WIT
16 6. CEM CAN

17
18 AND

- 19
20 7. IPC MANAGEMENT SERVICES LLC
21 8. IPC CORPORATION SERVICES INC
22 9. IPC CORPORATION SERVICES LLC
23 10. TITAN INTERNATIONAL SECURITIES INC
24 11. LEGACY GLOBAL MARKETS SA
25 12. UNICORN INTERNATIONAL SECURITIES
26 LLC
27 13. PINNACLE FINANCIAL GROUP (Cayman) LTD

28
29 APPLICANTS (as underlined)

30
31 Appearances:

32 Mrs. Nicholas Dixey and Mr. Colm Flanagan
33 of Nelson & Co. on behalf of the Applicants:

- 34 - Kelvin Leach,
35 - Titan International Securities Inc.
36 - Pinnacle Financial Group (Cayman) Ltd.

37 Ms. Toyin Salako, Crown Counsel on behalf of 38 the DPP
39
40
41
42
43
44

1 Before: The Hon. Mr. Justice Charles Quin Q.C.
2 Heard: 21st March 2017
3 Applicants' Supplementary Written Submissions 31st March 2017
4 DPP's Supplementary Written Submissions 13th April 2017
5 Judgment delivered: 27th April 2017

6

7

8

9

HEADNOTE

*The Proceeds of Crime Law – Applicability of s. 44 and s.45 as read with Schedule 5 – Procedural flaw and lack of evidence – Application of s.7 of Schedule
5 – Material Non-disclosure on ex parte application for an External Restraint
Order pursuant to POCL*

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

24

25

TABLE OF CONTENTS

• INTRODUCTION	PAGES 4-5
• FOUNDATIONS OF THE APPLICATION	6
• CHRONOLOGY BEFORE THE GRANTING OF THE RESTRAINT ORDER	7-10
• CHRONOLOGY AFTER THE GRANTING OF THE RESTRAINT ORDER	11-12
• LEGISLATION	13-15
• GROUND 1 – FAILURE TO MEET THE THRESHOLD	16-21
• GROUND 2 – PROCEDURAL FLAWS & LACK OF EVIDENCE	22-30
• GROUND 3 – MATERIAL NON-DISCLOSURE	31-38

JUDGMENT

INTRODUCTION

1. This is an application – dated the 6th January 2017 – brought by Mr. Kelvin Leach (“Mr. Leach”), Titan Securities Inc. (“Titan”) and Pinnacle Financial Group (Cayman) Ltd. (“Pinnacle”) (“the Applicants”) for an Order to discharge the ex parte Restraint Order made by me on the 18th December 2015.

2. The application is grounded by the Affidavit, sworn by the First Applicant, Mr. Leach on the 5th January 2017 in Belize City, Belize.

3. Mr. Leach avers that Titan was incorporated in Belize on the 28th February 2011 and that he was the President of Titan with responsibility for overseeing all the daily operations from its inception.

4. Mr. Leach further avers that Pinnacle was incorporated on the 24th October 2013 and is a subsidiary of Pinnacle Financial Services Ltd. ("PFSL"). Mr. Leach avers that he is the beneficial owner of Pinnacle.

5. On the 18th December 2015 this Court made an ex parte External Restraint Order pursuant to the Mutual Legal Assistance (USA) Law (2015 Revision) (“MLAT Law”) and pursuant to s.45 of the POCL restraining realizable property of the Applicants – Mr. Leach, Titan and Pinnacle and, in particular, restrained and froze four accounts in the name of the Applicant Pinnacle – held with Cayman National Bank (“CNB”) and one account in the name of the Applicant Titan (and Legacy Global Markets S.A. (“Legacy”)) held with Caledonian Bank Limited (“Caledonian Bank”).

1 The alleged facts set out in the Letter of Request dated the 2nd July 2015 from the
2 United States Department of Justice ("USDOJ") claimed that the Applicant Mr. Leach
3 was an employee of the Applicant Titan and a director of the Applicant Pinnacle and,
4 further, that Titan and Pinnacle shared the same address., the Matalon, Coney Drive,
5 Suite 403, Belize City, Belize.

1 FOUNDATIONS OF THE APPLICATION

2
3 6. In summary, the Applicants rely on three grounds in their Application to set aside the 4 ex parte Restraint Order granted by this Court on the 18th December 2015 as follows:

5
6 (a) The Applicants submit that the ex parte application made before me on the 18th
7 December 2015 did not comply with the POCL (2016 Revision) and (2014
8 Revision), as it was at that time, in that, the mandatory conditions set out under 9 s.44 of the POCL had not been satisfied and therefore the threshold for making the 10 Restraint Order had not been met.

11
12 (b) The Applicants submit that the ex parte application was not supported by an 13 Affidavit, a Declaration, or any other written statement by the appropriate
14 authority of the foreign country and they submit further that there was insufficient
15 evidence and information before the Court to ground the ex parte application.

16
17 (c) The Applicants contends that the Applicant to the ex parte application was guilty
18 of material non-disclosure by not bringing to the Court's attention the judgment of 19 Benjamin CJ of the Supreme Court of Belize in FIU v. Bandfield, Godfrey Leach
20 et al, dated the 7th November 2014, and the judgment of Williams J. of this Court
21 in the matter of Brian de Wit et al on the 8th June 2015.

1 CHRONOLOGY BEFORE THE GRANTING OF THE RESTRAINT ORDER

2
3 7. On the 2nd July 2015 the Cayman Islands Mutual Legal Assistance Authority
4 (“CIMLAA”) received a formal request from the USDOJ¹ pursuant to the MLAT Law
5 for assistance to restrain certain accounts in the name of the Applicants and for the 6 production of relevant documents.

7
8 8. The Request from the USDOJ confirmed that there is an investigation and prosecution
9 of the Applicants and others for money laundering, securities fraud and conspiracy to 10 defraud the United States.

11
12 9. The USDOJ Request contained a detailed statement of facts relating to the applicants’
13 activities in the USA, Belize, the Cayman Islands and elsewhere. The substantial
14 allegations against the Applicants and others were that they had engaged in significant 15 illegal market manipulation and, further, that the Applicants had laundered the 16 proceeds of this illegal market manipulation schemes into accounts opened by the 17 Applicants in the Cayman Islands. The Request was supported by details of the 18 accounts opened by Mr. Leach and the movement of alleged illegal funds into accounts
19 with CNB and Caledonian Bank in the names of the other two applicants – Pinnacle
20 and Titan.

¹ See Affidavit of Brian D Morris which accompanied MLAT request (as yet undisclosed to applicants) [8/1-17]

1 10. The USDOJ Request exhibited at Exhibit A the Indictment Number CR14-00476 laid
2 by Ms. Lorretta Lynch – the US Attorney General for the Eastern District of New York
3 on the 8th September 2014 – against the Applicants and others before Glasser J of the 4 US District Court of New York. The indictment set out detailed facts which supported
5 the allegations against the Applicants who were charged with conspiracy to commit
6 securities fraud, conspiracy to defraud the US and a money laundering, conspiracy
7 from on or about January 2006 up to September 2014.

8
9 11. On the 30th June 2015 Levy J – a judge of the US district Court for Eastern District
10 Court of New York issued a seizure order for all funds on deposit in Caledonian Bank
11 in the name of the Applicant Titan.

12
13 12. On the 2nd July 2015 Levy J issued a second seizure warrant for all funds on deposit in 14 the name of the Applicant Pinnacle with CNB.

15
16 13. On the 14th July 2015 the CIMLAA Authority acknowledged receipt of the Request
17 from the USDOJ and asked for further additional material.

18
19 14. On the 27th August 2015 the USDOJ supplied the additional material sought by the 20 CIMLAA in a letter from the Acting Director of the USDOJ, Ms. Mary Rodriguez.

1 15. On the 15th December 2015 the CIMLAA considered the Request and the additional
2 material provided by the USDOJ and issued a Certificate pursuant to s.6 of the MLAT
3 Law and instructed the DPP to apply on its behalf for a Restraint Order for the
4 accounts (listed in the USDOJ Letter of Request dated the 2nd July 2015) with CNB
5 and Caledonian Bank in the names of the Applicants Pinnacle and Titan and another
6 entity, Legacy Global Markets, SA ("Legacy")

7
8 16. Section 6(1) of the MLAT Law reads:

9
10 "6. (1) Upon receipt of a request, the competent authorities in the Islands shall 11 execute the request, in accordance with, but subject to, the provisions of the 12 Treaty. Where the execution of a request requires the issue under the law of the 13 Islands of a subpoena, search warrant, order for the seizure of any article or other 14 necessary order by a magistrate, justice of the peace or officer of a court, a
15 certificate given by the Cayman Authority that the issue of any such document or 16 order is required for the purposes of a request to which this Law relates shall be 17 sufficient authority for the issue or making of the same without further enquiry."
18

19 17. It appears that upon receipt of a Request from the Requesting USDOJ the CIMLAA
20 shall execute the Request in accordance with the provisions of the Treaty. Furthermore,
21 under the MLAT Law, a Certificate given by the CIMLAA shall be sufficient authority
22 for the issue or making of the same without further enquiry. I find that this procedure
23 was properly followed and the CIMLAA certified that the Request from the USDOJ
24 met the obligations and requirements of the Treaty.

25
26 18. On the 18th of July 2015 Crown Counsel, Ms. Salako, appeared before me on behalf of 27 the Cayman Authority in application for an ex parte Restraint Order to, inter alia,
28 freeze and restrain the four accounts in the name of the Applicant Pinnacle, with CNB,
29 and, the single account in the name of the Applicant Titan, with Caledonian Bank.
30

1 19. With Crown Counsel was Detective Constable Keith Taylor of the Financial Crime
2 Unit of the RCIPS, who had sworn an Affidavit, dated the 16th December 2015. The 3 Application was supported by a Court bundle which included the Affidavit of DC.
4 Taylor, the CIMLAA's request for additional material from the USDOJ, the 5 Indictment, the seizure Warrants, the affidavit of the Assistant US Attorney, Brian
6 Morris, dated the 2nd July 2015, the additional USDOJ material, copies of the relevant
7 portions of the MLAT Law and the POCL and the written submissions of Crown
8 Counsel.

9
10 20. The facts in relation to the USDOJ investigation are set out in the Request, the 11 Indictment, the additional material and the affidavit of Brian Morris. As far as I can
12 recollect, and as far as my notes reflect, that was the material put before me by Crown
13 Counsel and DC Taylor on the 18th December 2015.

14
15 21. I made notes during the hearing on the 18th December 2015 which set out the material I
16 relied upon and the submissions made before me pursuant to the MLAT Law and 17 POCL. At the hearing on the 21st March 2016 I provided both parties with copies of 18 my notes of the hearing of the 18th December 2015.

19
20 22. My notes reflect that, in particular, my attention was drawn to Article 1 of the MLAT
21 Law, s.187 of the POCL, Schedule 5 of the POCL as read with s.45 and s.44 of the 22 POCL.

CHRONOLOGY AFTER THE GRANTING OF THE RESTRAINT ORDER

23. On the 23rd May 2016: Mr. Leach's co-defendant, Mr. Robert Bandfield ("Mr. Bandfield") entered a guilty plea in relation to Count 3 of the US Indictment – that is, conspiracy with Mr. Leach and others to launder money. At the time of entering his guilty plea Mr. Bandfield agreed to forfeit US$1 million and further also consented to forfeit all of his rights and interests to the five accounts which are currently the subject of the Restraint Order dated the 18th December 2015.

24. On the 23rd May 2016: A preliminary order for forfeiture was filed at the US District Court Eastern District of New York and signed by the presiding judge, Glasser J.

25. I have been informed that following the grant of the preliminary order it is the custom of the US District Court of the Eastern District of New York to issue a legal notice of the aforesaid forfeiture which was published on the official US Government website www.forfeiture.gov from the 21st June 2016 to the 21st July 2016. The purpose of this legal notice was for any person or entity to make a claim of interest to the property, subject to the preliminary order of forfeiture. This preliminary order of forfeiture dated the 23rd May 2016 is exhibited to the affidavit of DC Barbaron dated the 22nd March 2017.

26. The Court has been informed that only one person has made a claim and further that none of the Applicants for the discharge of my Restraint Order has made a claim of interest, subject to the forfeiture order.

1 27. I have been informed by Crown Counsel that the USDOJ is in the process of resolving
2 this single claim. Once that is resolved I am informed that a final order of forfeiture
3 will be made followed by a supplementary request to the CIMLAA for further 4 assistance.

LEGISLATION

28. Section 187 of the POCL relates to external requests and orders and reads:

"187. Schedule 5 shall apply to external confiscation orders and to any proceedings which have been, or are to be, instituted and which may result in external confiscation orders being made in foreign countries."

29. Schedule 5 sets out the modification to the Law when applied to external Confiscation Orders and related proceedings and reads:

"SCHEDULE 5

Modifications to the Law When Applied to External Confiscation Orders and Related Proceedings

section 187

Introductory

1. This Schedule shall apply to external confiscation orders registered under this Law and to any proceedings which have been or are to be instituted and which may result in such external confiscation orders being made and, to the extent that it is at variance with this Law in relation to the administration and enforcement of external confiscation orders and proceedings which may result in external confiscation orders, the terms of this Schedule shall prevail.

General interpretation

2. In this Schedule

(1) The

(2) Proceedings are instituted in a particular country when

- (a) under the law of the foreign country concerned, one of the steps specified in specified in relation to that country in an order made under this Law has been taken there in respect of alleged conduct by the defendant to which this Law applies; or
- (b) an application has been made to a court in a foreign country for a confiscation order, and where the application of this paragraph would result in there being more than one time for the institution of proceedings, they shall be taken to have been instituted at the earliest of those times.

(3) Proceedings are concluded

- (a) when (disregarding any power of a court to grant leave to appeal out of time) there is no further possibility of an external confiscation order being made in the proceedings; or
- (b) on the satisfaction of an external confiscation order made in the proceedings (whether by the recovery of all property liable to be recovered, or the payment of any amount due, or otherwise)."

1 30. Section 5(1) of Schedule 5 reads:

2 "5. (1) The powers conferred on the Grand Court by paragraph 6(1) are
3 exercisable where -

- 4 (a) proceedings have been instituted against the defendant in
5 a foreign country;
6 (b) the proceedings have not been concluded; and
7 (c) either an external confiscation order has been made in the
8 proceedings or it appears to the Grand Court that there
9 are reasonable grounds for thinking that such an order
10 may be made in them of at least the minimum amount."
11

12 31. Section 6 specifically deals with Restraint orders and s.6(1) and 6(2) read:

13 "6. (1) The Grand Court may, by order (referred to in this Schedule as a 14 restraint order") prohibit any person from dealing with any realisable
15 property, subject to such conditions and exceptions as may be specified in 16 the order.
17 (2) Without prejudice to subparagraph (1), a restraint order shall be 18 subject to section 45."
19

20
21 32. As directed by s.6(2) of Schedule 5 I now turn to s.45(1) and (2) of the substantive
22 Law which reads:

23 "45. (1) Where any of the conditions set out in section 44 is satisfied the court may 24 make a restraint order prohibiting any specified person from dealing with 25 any realisable property held by him subject to such conditions and 26 exceptions as may be specified in the order.
27 (2) A restraint order may provide that it applies -
28 (a) to all realisable property held by the specified person whether or 29 not the property is described in the order; or 30 (b) to realisable property transferred to the specified person after the 31 order is made."
32
33
34
35
36
37
38
39
40
41
42

1 33. Finally s.44 sets out the conditions for the exercise of the Court's power and reads:

2 "44. (1) The court may grant a restraint order in accordance with section
3 45 if any one of the following conditions is satisfied -

- 4 (a) a criminal investigation has been started in the 5 Islands with regard to an offence and there is 6 reasonable cause to believe that the alleged
7 offender has benefited from his criminal conduct;
8 (b) proceedings for an offence have been started in 9 the Islands and not concluded and there is 10 reasonable cause to believe that the defendant has 11 benefited from his criminal conduct;
12 (c)

1 GROUND 1 – FAILURE TO MEET THE THRESHOLD

2
3 34. The jurisdiction to make a Restraint Order by way of assistance to a foreign country
4 (“an External Restraint Order”) pursuant to the POCL is conferred by s.187 and 5 Schedule 5 of the POCL.

6
7 35. The Request for an application for an External Restraint Order – where the Request for 8 assistance has been made by the USDOJ is pursuant to the MLAT Law and the law
9 provides the statutory and procedural legal framework to give effect to the USDOJ’s
10 Letter of Request.

11
12 36. The Certificate signed by the CIMLAA certifies that a Restraint Order is required for a
13 Request under the MLA (USA) Law and it is authorisation for the issue or the making
14 of the Order without further enquiry, but still pursuant to the POCL.

15
16 37. Section 5(1) of Schedule 5 of POCL sets out the circumstances in which the Grand 17 Court has the power to order an External Restraint Order as read with s.6(1):

18 “5. (1) The powers conferred on the Grand Court by paragraph 6(1) are 19 exercisable where -

- 20 (a) proceedings have been instituted against the defendant in
21 a foreign country;
22 (b) the proceedings have not been concluded; and
23 (c) either an external confiscation order has been made in the
24 proceedings or it appears to the Grand Court that there
25 are reasonable grounds for thinking that such an order
26 may be made in them of at least the minimum amount.”
27
28
29
30
31
32

1 38. It is clear that criminal proceedings have been instituted against the Applicants in the
2 Eastern District of New York as can be seen by the Indictment referred to in paragraph 3 11 above and referred to by the Assistant District Attorney, Brian Morris, who has
4 conduct of the criminal proceedings against the Applicants in the USA

5
6 39. I agree with the submission from Counsel for the Applicants that before granting an
7 External Restraint Order the Court must also be directed to s.45 and therefore s.44 of 8 POCL because s.6(2) of Schedule 5 clearly stipulates that an External Restraint Order
9 shall be subject to s.45 of POCL.

10
11 40. The Applicants submit that the DPP's application in December 2015 must meet the 12 criteria of s.5(1) of Schedule 5 and the conditions set out under s.44, namely, that:

13
14 "...a criminal investigation has been started in the islands" with regard to an 15 offence and there is reasonable cause to believe that the alleged offender has 16 benefitted from his criminal conduct."
17

18
19 41. The Applicants submit that although the Crown asserted at paragraph 17 in their 20 written submissions before me in December 2015 that "a criminal investigation has 21 been started in relation to the five individuals by the Central Authorities of the USA"
22 there is a lack of evidence to demonstrate that any criminal investigation has been
23 started within the Cayman Islands as required by s.44(1) of POCL.
24

1 42. On the 18th December 2015 Ms. Salako submitted at paragraph 16 of her written
2 submissions that "s.6(2) of Schedule 5 provides that the Restraint Order shall be
3 subject to s.45 of POCL" and specifically referred the Court to s.44 and s.45 and 4 s.46." Paragraph 17 of the Crown's written submissions set out specifically the 5 Crown's submission – that a criminal investigation has been started in the Cayman
6 Islands pursuant to s.44(1)(a). My notes of the hearing on the 18th December 2015 also 7 specifically refer to s.45 and s.44(1) as read with s.187 and Schedule 5 of POCL.

8
9 43. I come now to examine the Affidavit of DC Keith Taylor of the FCU of the RCIPS,
10 which affidavit was sworn on the 16th December 2015 and put before this Court on the 11 18th December 2015. At paragraph 3 of his affidavit DC Taylor avers that "my 12 knowledge of the facts deposed to at this hearing derive from my investigation of the 13 matter to date and from consideration of the application from the USA and its 14 contents." (emphasis supplied).

15
16 44. Officer Taylor goes on to swear at paragraph 6: "This application is based on the 17 premise that a criminal investigation has been started in the USA which would 18 constitute an offence which occurred within the Cayman Islands."

19
20 45. Officer Taylor then details the facts alleged in the Request from the USDOJ and refers 21 to the seizure warrants dated the 30th of June 2015 and the 2nd of July 2015 at 22 paragraph 8, and, in particular, the specific Cayman Islands accounts named in the 23 seizure warrant in the name of Titan at Caledonian Bank, and in the name of Pinnacle
24 at CNB. Officer Taylor's evidence details the activities of the Applicants and in 25 particular the evidence that Pinnacle was a Financial Services firm registered in the 26 Cayman Islands.

1 46. Officer Taylor deposes to the activities of the Applicant Mr. Leach and the others
2 named in the USA Indictment and specifically referred to the fact that Mr. Leach
3 opened two corporate savings accounts in Pinnacle's name at CNB in Grand Cayman
4 and the significant sums of money deposited into those accounts, which Officer Taylor
5 contends is consistent with Titan's fraudulent operations. Officer Taylor goes on to
6 state that the investigation revealed that Titan frequently opened US dollar and CA
7 dollar accounts at Caledonian Bank and CNB in Grand Cayman on the same day(s). At 8 paragraph 30 Officer Taylor avers that the Applicant, Mr. Leach, opened further 9 accounts at CNB in the name of Pinnacle and at paragraph 31 sets out the sums of 10 money contained in these accounts. Officer Taylor avers at paragraph 32 that Pinnacle
11 had no legitimate business and was used by the Applicants and others named in the US
12 Indictment to launder the proceeds of the securities frauds conducted by IPC on behalf
13 of their clients (the Applicants et al) or no business records identifying a close
14 connection between Pinnacle, IPC and Titan.

15
16 47. At paragraph 37 Officer Taylor further avers that:

17
18 "the investigation by the US and the Cayman Islands revealed that Titan, Legacy
19 and Unicorn did not conduct any legitimate business activities but rather they 20 were shell entities established by IPC to conceal the true beneficial ownership
21 interests of IPC's clients' fraudulent securities transactions." (emphasis supplied)

1 48. At paragraph 3 Officer Taylor avers that his:

2 “knowledge of the facts deposed herein derives from his knowledge of the
3 investigation into the matter to date and from consideration of the application
4 from the USA”.

5
6 49. Officer Taylor then goes on to state at paragraph 4 that he had:

7 “reasonable grounds to suspect that the subjects named in the body of this Request
8 for Assistance have committed, facilitated and benefitted from the offences
9 contained within and that it is necessary to make this application to restrain the 10 funds held with CNB and Caledonian Bank which are both licenced banks
11 regulated by the Cayman Islands Monetary Authority”

12
13 50. I note that the Crown have slightly varied their stance and, as a fallback position, now
14 argue that the criminal investigation in the Cayman Islands is not necessary because s.5
15 of Schedule 5 sets out what is required before the Court can grant an application for an 16 External Restraint Order. With respect to Crown Counsel, I do not accept, and,
17 consequently reject, that submission.

18
19 51. On the 18th December 2015, before I could grant the DPP’s ex parte application for an 20 External Restraint Order, I had to satisfy myself that:

21 “A criminal investigation had been started in the Cayman Islands with regard to 22 an offence,”
23
24
25
26
27
28
29
30

1 52. On the 18th December 2015 I was satisfied that on the evidence of Officer Taylor as
2 detailed above that as an officer with the FCU of the RCIPS, and, from his
3 investigation of the matter to date he has knowledge of the facts to which he deposes.
4 Furthermore he refers to the investigations in the USA and the Cayman Islands which 5 investigations clearly link the Applicants, Mr. Leach and Applicants Titan and 6 Pinnacle to accounts within CNB and Caledonian Baank – both Cayman Islands
7 institutions.

8
9 53. Accordingly, I am satisfied that on the evidence put before me on the 18th December
10 2015 that Officer Taylor has started a criminal investigation in the Cayman Islands
11 with regard to offences and, further that Officer Taylor has shown in his affidavit a 12 basis for his belief that

13
14 “there is reasonable cause to believe that the alleged offenders (the Applicants)
15 have benefitted from criminal conduct.”
16

17
18 54. Accordingly, from a close examination of Officer Taylor’s affidavit, the Request from 19 the USDOJ, the covering letter from the Acting Director, the USDOJ additional 20 material, and the Affidavit from the Assistant District Attorney, Mr. Brian Morris,
21 exhibiting the Indictment that the conditions set out in s.44(1) have been satisfied that
22 the Court was right to hold that the threshold had been met and that a criminal
23 investigation had been started in the Cayman Islands with regard to offences for which
24 the Applicants have been charged in the Indictment before Lasser J of the US District
25 Court, Eastern District of New York. Accordingly I dismiss the Applicants’ first 26 ground.
27
28

1 GROUND 2 - PROCEDURAL FLAWS AND LACK OF EVIDENCE

2
3 55. Section 5 of Schedule 5 provides that:

- 4 “5. (1) The powers conferred on the Grand Court by paragraph 6(1) are
5 exercisable where -
6 (a) proceedings have been instituted against the defendant in a
7 foreign country;
8 (b) the proceedings have not been concluded; and
9 (c) either an external confiscation order has been made in the 10 proceedings or it appears to the Grand Court that there are 11 reasonable grounds for thinking that such an order may be made
12 in them of at least the minimum amount.
13 (2) Those powers are also exercisable where the Grand Court is satisfied that 14 proceedings will be instituted against the defendant in a foreign country.
15 (3) Where the court has made an order under paragraph 6 (1) by virtue of 16 subparagraph (2) -
17 (a) the Director of Public Prosecutions shall notify the court
18 immediately if proceedings have not been instituted; and
19 (b) the court shall discharge the order if the proposed proceedings
20 are not instituted.”
21

22 56. Section 7 of Schedule 5 reads:

- 23 “7. An application under paragraph 6(5) shall be accompanied by an affidavit, a 24 declaration or any other written statement by the appropriate authority of the foreign
25 country deposing to or specifying -
26 (a) where proceedings have been instituted, the conduct in which the 27 defendant is alleged to have engaged (exhibiting a copy of the indictment,
28 information or charge), and the grounds for believing that the defendant
29 engaged in that conduct;
30 (b) where proceedings will be instituted, the conduct in which the defendant
31 will be alleged to have engaged, and the grounds for believing that the 32 defendant engaged in that conduct;
33 (c) where an external confiscation order has been made, the amount payable 34 under the confiscation order;
35 (d) where an external confiscation order has not been made -
36 (i) the grounds for the belief that the defendant derived a benefit of a
37 stated amount as a result of the conduct;
38 (ii) the grounds for the belief that the amount that might be realised is 39 at least the stated amount;
40 (iii) where the defendant proceedings have been instituted, the grounds
41 for believing that an external confiscation order may be made and 42 the amount likely to be payable under such a confiscation order;
43 or

- 1 (iv) where proceedings are to be instituted, the grounds for believing
2 that an external confiscation order is likely to be made and the 3 amount likely to be payable under such a confiscation order;
4 (e) a description of the property in respect of which the order is sought;
5 (f) the grounds for the belief that the property is realisable property;
6 (g) the name and address of the person who is believed to be in the possession
7 of the property; and
8 (h) the names and addresses of any parties who may have an interest in that
9 property, and the nature of their interest.”
10
11

12 57. The Applicants accept that Officer Taylor’s affidavit was properly filed according to 13 the Grand Court Rules (GCR) but submit that other material was not properly filed
14 and, therefore, the application should not have been considered by the Court on the 18th
15 December 2015. In particular, the Applicants take exception to the Affidavit sworn by 16 Brian Morris – the Assistant US Attorney assigned to the Eastern District of New York
17 and submit that the Assistant US Attorney cannot constitute an “Appropriate 18 Authority” within the meaning of POCL.

19
20 58. Although the “Appropriate Authority” is not defined within POCL, the Applicants rely
21 upon the former Proceeds of Criminal Conduct (Designated Countries) Order 2003
22 Revision which states that, for the purpose of that law, the Appropriate Authority was 23 the Director of International Affairs Criminal Division Department of Justice.
24 Accordingly, the Applicants submit that Mr.Morris cannot be an Appropriate Authority
25 and therefore his affidavit should not be considered by the Court.

26
27 59. POCL (Law 10 of 2008) was first enacted by the Legislature on the 1st August 2008.
28 POCL was revised on the 31st July 2014 and POCL (2014 Revision) was gazetted on 29 the 7th November 2014. The POCL Amendment Law 2015 was passed on the 29th
30 April 2015. Finally, POCL was again revised in September 2016 and POCL (2016
31 Revision) is now the operating POCL.

1
2 60. The interpretation section of POCL – s.2(1) identifies and defines a number of
3 significant positions, posts and words, but does not identify or define Appropriate
4 Authority. If it had been the intention of the Legislature to specifically identify and
5 define “Appropriate Authority” for the purpose of an application for an External
6 Restraint Order, there were several opportunities to include a definition of 7 “Appropriate Authority” and it would have been a very simple exercise to include such 8 a definition.

9
10 61. As there is no definition, the Court is left in a quandary – with attorneys and judges
11 wrestling with what or who should constitute the Appropriate Authority. On the 18th
12 December 2015 the Court was provided with the following documentation:

13
14 (a) A formal Request for assistance dated the 2nd July 2015 from the Central Authority
15 of the USA and signed by the Deputy Director of the Office of International 16 Affairs, Criminal Division, USDOJ.

17
18 (b) A letter dated the 2nd Jul 2015 from the Acting Director of the Office of 19 International Affairs, Criminal Division, USDOJ.

20
21 (c) An affidavit dated the 6th July 2015 sworn by the Assistant District Attorney, Brian 22 Morris who (with others) is “responsible for the investigation, prosecution and 23 trial” of the three Applicants and others.

(d) The Certificate, dated the 16th December 2015, from the CIMLAA pursuant to s.6 of MLAT Law 1986, giving effect to the Request and requiring the DPP to apply to this Court for orders, inter alia, that the Applicants be restrained from dealing with their accounts in CNB and Caledonian Bank.

62. In the CICA decision in *Bertoli et al v. Malone (as CIMLAA)*² the Court stated at the first holding:

“the purpose of the Law and the Treaty was to speed up the processes involved in the investigation, prosecution and suppression of crime between the two countries.”

Accordingly this Court is acutely mindful of its obligations under the Law and the Treaty and what it can do within the Law to give effect to its provisions and its purpose.

63. Leaving aside the Applicants’ grounds of, not meeting the threshold, insufficient evidence and material non-disclosure it would be quite absurd if the failure of the revised POCLs to define “Appropriate Authority” would force me to accept the Applicants’s submissions that I should disregard Brian Morris’ affidavit and discharge the Restraint Order.

64. I agree with the submissions of Crown Counsel that the documentary requirements for the application for an External Restraint Order are extremely wide and that POCL does not require any specific documents other than an affidavit, a declaration or any other written statement from an Appropriate Authority of the Foreign Country.

² 1990-91 CILR 58

1 65. The POCL does not define "Appropriate Authority" The Assistant District Attorney
2 who with others, "is responsible for the investigation, prosecution and trial" of the 3 USA v the Applicants and others Indictment Number 14-CR-46 . For the aforesaid
4 reasons it is my ruling that Assistant District Attorney Brian Morris is the Appropriate
5 Authority in this case for the purpose of s.7 of Schedule 5, and his affidavit together
6 will the "other written statements" from the USDOJ meet the requirements of s.7(1)(a)
7 of POCL and is admissible for the purpose of these proceedings.

8
9 66. In the second part of Ground 2, the Applicants submit that there is an absence of 10 witness statements or any substantial evidence to support the Crown's application for 11 the Restraint Order granted on the 18th December 2015 and that there is insufficient
12 evidence for the court to find there is reasonable cause to believe that the Applicants
13 had benefitted from criminal conduct. This alleged lack of supporting documentation 14 and evidence cannot be saved by what the Applicants submit are "unsustainable and 15 unsubstantiated" conclusions.

16
17 67. Section 7 of Schedule 5 of POCL sets out the requirements to support an application
18 for an External Restraint Order and provides that the Appropriate Authority of the 19 Requesting Country must provide one of the following:

- 20 (a) An Affidavit
21
22 (b) A declaration
23
24 (c) Any other written statement
25
26

1 68. On the 18th December 2015 I was provided with the formal request from the USDOJ
2 which sets out detailed facts. I was further provided with the additional USDOJ
3 information sought by the CIMLAA and on the 18th December 2015 and the Affidavit
4 of the Assistant District Attorney Brian Morris, who has conduct of the proceedings
5 against the Applicants in the United States together with a certified copy of the 6 Indictment (from the USDOJ) and certified copies of the Seizure Requests. The 7 material before me in December 2015 set out with substantial detail the conduct
8 alleged and the grounds for believing that the Applicants engaged in that conduct.

9
10 69. The question I have to ask myself is whether on my review of all the material
11 presented by the DPP before me on the 18th December 2015, there is reasonable cause
12 to believe that the Applicants have benefitted from criminal conduct? In December
13 2015 I conducted a detailed examination of the material and, again, for the purposes of 14 this inter partes application I have conducted a further detailed examination of the 15 material put before me on the 18th December 2015.

16
17 70. There is evidence that IPC set up a number of shell companies for its clients. The shell
18 companies established by IPC included Titan and Legacy. There is evidence to suggest
19 that these shell companies were established on behalf of IPC so as to conceal the true
20 ownership interests of publicly traded companies in the USA and there is evidence to 21 support that the concealment of the ownership allowed IPC clients to manipulate the 22 stock market by using their ownership interests to engineer price movements and 23 trading volumes in the stocks for various publicly traded companies.
24
25

1 71. I accept that the concealment of the true beneficial ownership is a violation of the US
2 Securities law. I accept that there was reasonable cause to believe that the proceeds of 3 the alleged fraud from the illegal trading in securities was laundered by IPC on behalf
4 of their clients.

5
6 72. There is no controversy that the Applicant Mr. Leach was president of the Applicant
7 Titan. There is no controversy that the Applicant Mr. Leach served as a director of 8 Pinnacle – which shares the same mailing address as Titan. There is no challenge to the 9 fact that the Applicant Mr. Leach, from the 22nd September 2013, was manager,
10 secretary and president of Pinnacle. There is no challenge to the information that the 11 investigations carried out by the USDOJ/US Authority has revealed that the named 12 companies did not carry out any legitimate business transactions.

13
14 73. On the other hand, there is evidence to support that the Applicant Pinnacle was a
15 company used to facilitate the laundering of money on behalf of IPC clients. There is 16 evidence to support the allegation that to conceal the illegal transfer of funds from 17 Titan to IPC, Titan opened Pinnacle accounts to break up the transfer and avoid 18 suspicion from the banks. There is evidence to support the allegation that IPC would 19 launder the illegal proceeds of their illegal transactions to the Applicant Titan, and that,
20 the Applicant Titan would then transfer the proceeds to Pinnacle, who would then
21 wire-transfer funds to IPC clients in the USA and Canada.

1 74. There is evidence that undercover agents dealt directly with the Applicant Mr. Leach
2 and that Mr. Leach confirmed that shell companies had been successfully established
3 to establish brokerage accounts in the name of the undercover agent.

4
5 75. There is evidence that the Applicant Mr. Leach opened the account at the CNB in the 6 name of the Applicant Pinnacle and the sole signatory to these accounts was the 7 Applicant Mr. Leach.

8
9 76. Accordingly, from my review of the documents which were before me on the 18th
10 December 2015 there is sufficient evidence and information and I thereby found that 11 there was reasonable cause to believe that the Applicants have benefitted from criminal 12 conduct.

13
14 77. There was (and is) much more than mere “unsustainable and unsubstantiated
15 conclusions”. There was in my view sufficient evidence before me of criminal conduct 16 both in the USA and in the Cayman Islands and that the detailed evidence contained in 17 Officer Taylor’s affidavit and within the other documents before me, set out where the 18 proceedings were instituted, the conduct in which the Applicants are alleged to have 19 engaged, and, the grounds for believing that the Applicants engaged in that conduct.
20 The material presented by the DPP on the 18th December 2015 exhibited the 21 Indictment, which charged the Applicants with conspiracy to commit securities fraud,
22 conspiracy to defraud the USA, and, money laundering conspiracy.

1 The written statements before me, and the affidavit of Officer Taylor set out the
2 grounds for Officer Taylor's belief that the Applicants and others had derived a benefit
3 of stated amounts as a result of their conduct and the grounds for believing that an
4 External Restraint Order should be made.

5
6
7 78. Finally, Officer Taylor's affidavit discloses a clear description of the realizable
8 property located in the Cayman Islands and the names and addresses of the persons or 9 entities in possession of the said properties pursuant to s.7(g) and (h) of Schedule 5

10
11 79. For all the aforesaid reasons I reject the Applicants' second ground.

1 GROUND 3 - MATERIAL NON-DISCLOSURE

2
3 80. The Applicants complain that on the 18th December 2015 the Court's attention was not
4 drawn to the decision of Chief Justice Benjamin of the Supreme Court of Belize
5 between the FIU v. Bandfield, Godfrey, Leach et al dated the 13th November 2014 and
6 the local decision of Williams J in the matter of Brian De Wit & Others dated the 8th
7 June 2015. The Applicants submit that this was material non-disclosure and as such
8 this Court should exercise its discretion to discharge and set aside the Restraint Order
9 dated 18th December 2015.
10

11 81. Crown Counsel, Ms. Salako, who is a highly regarded officer of this Court states that it
12 is her recollection from memory that the Belizean judgment of Benjamin CJ dated the 13 10th November 2014 was brought to the attention of the Court on the 18th December 14 2015.

15
16 82. However, Crown Counsel with her customary candour accepts that neither Benjamin
17 CJ' judgment nor Williams J's judgment – referenced above – were contained in the 18 DPP's bundle produced to the Court in December 2015, nor were they were attached to 19 Officer Taylors affidavit.
20
21

1 83. I cannot confirm whether the Benjamin CJ's judgment was brought to my attention,
2 but, my notes taken at the time make no mention of either judgment. The Applicants
3 submit that the Crown had direct knowledge of these two judgments and the Crown
4 failed in its duty, upon the hearing of an ex parte application, to make full and frank
5 disclosure of all matters which are material to be taken into account by the Court
6 before deciding whether or not to grant the draconian relief of an External Restraint
7 Order. Consequently the Applicants submit that I should set aside my Restraint Order
8 of the 18th December 2015.

9
10 84. In considering this third ground I am taking the position that the DPP's office made an 11 error in not putting the judgments of Benjamin CJ and Williams J in the bundle
12 presented to the Court and consequently there was non-disclosure.

13
14 85. In *In Re Stanford International Bank Ltd*³, the English Court of Appeal considered
15 the question of material non-disclosure (and material misrepresentation) and addressed
16 these issues as they relate to an ex parte Restraint Order obtained pursuant to s.447(2)
17 of the UK Proceeds of Crime Act 2002. Hughes LJ⁴, stated at paragraph 191 of his 18 judgment

19
20 "Whilst I respectfully agree with the view expressed by Slade LJ in Brink's Mat
21 Ltd. v. Elcombe [1988] 1 WLR 1350 that it can be all too easy for an objector to a
22 freezing order to fall into the belief that almost any failure of disclosure is a 23 passport to setting aside, it is essential that the duty of candour laid upon any 24 applicant for an order without notice is fully understood and complied with."
25
26
27

³ [2011] Ch. 33

⁴ As he then was

1 86. Hughes LJ stated at letter D on page 109 that a prosecutor seeking an ex parte order
2 must put on his defence hat and consider that, if he were representing, let's say, for
3 example, the three Applicants in this case, what material might assist the Applicants. In 4 other words, the prosecution must consider any evidence that could advance the 5 Applicants' position.

6
7 87. In In Re Stanford International Bank Ltd, the Judge at first instance, Judge Kramer
8 Q.C., directed himself at the inter partes hearing that there are four questions to be 9 asked:

10
11 (a) Was there material misrepresentation?

12 (b) Was there material Non-disclosure as a result of which the order was obtained?

13 (c) Should the order be discharged?

14 (d) Should the order be varied?

15
16 88. In this case there is no complaint of misrepresentation and the Applicants are applying
17 for a complete discharge and not a variation so Judge Kramer's questions (a) and (d)
18 are not relevant.

19
20 89. At paragraph 193 of his judgment Hughes LJ set out the most important and 21 fundamental question which, in my view, I must ask myself in this case:

22
23 "The principal question is not whether the order was obtained as a result of 24 misrepresentation or non-disclosure but whether the information not disclosed was 25 material to be taken into account in deciding whether or not to grant relief without 26 notice and if so on what terms."
27
28
29
30
31

1 Hughes LJ went on to say:

2 “once that question is answered in the affirmative one comes to the consequential
3 question of whether the Order made ought to be discharged?”

4 90. Following Hughes LJ’s clear guidelines in In Re Stanford International Bank Ltd, I

5 ask myself the first question:

6
7 (a) Was material contained in the Judgments of Benjamin LJ and Williams J which 8 should have been taken into account in deciding whether or not to grant the 9 Restraint Order without notice to the other side? For this purpose the Court in my 10 view should:

11 i. Examine the contents of both judgments to see whether there are any
12 material facts which could undermine or weaken the DPP’s ex parte
13 application; and

14 ii. Examine the contents of both judgments to see whether there are any 15 material facts which would have supported the Applicants’ position and 16 which should have been advanced before the Court on the 18th December 17 2015.

1 91. The Applicants' Counsel, in their well-reasoned written and oral submissions set out
2 the principles of failing to disclose material facts with clarity and considerable vigour.
3 The Applicants rely heavily on the dicta of the learned Chief Justice in Ministry of 4 *National Defence Republic of China v. Y & Ors*⁵ and the judgment of Williams in the 5 case of Brian De Wit & Ors and submit that the DPP ought to have brought the 6 judgments of Benjamin CJ and Williams J to the Court's attention on the making of the 7 ex parte application on the 18th December 2015.

8
9 92. The Applicants' Counsel submits that as a result of this failure the only reasonable 10 conclusion that can be drawn is that the non-disclosure was material and therefore the 11 ex parte Restraint Order should be set aside.

12
13 93. Neither the DPP nor the Court takes any issue with the law on material non-disclosure
14 as set out by Counsel for the Applicants.

15
16 94. There is no allegation that Crown Counsel deliberately misled the Court nor is there an 17 allegation that there was a deliberate failure to disclose.

18
19 95. When I review the Judgment of Benjamin CJ I can find no material facts, which if they 20 had been brought to the attention of the Court on the 18th December 2015 would 21 undermine or weaken the DPP's ex parte application.

⁵ (G 276/13) unreported 13th June 2014

1 Secondly, I can find no material facts in the judgment of Benjamin CJ which would
2 support the position of the Applicants. Furthermore, and finally, Counsel for the
3 Applicants has failed to identify any material facts in the judgment of Benjamin CJ
4 which would undermine the DPP's ex parte application or advance the case for the 5 Applicants.

6
7 96. Consequently, in my view, the information in Benjamin CJ's judgment was not
8 material I would have taken into account in deciding whether or not to grant the ex
9 parte relief. Consequently I am not required to address Hughes LJ's second question as 10 to whether or not the ex parte order should be discharged.

11
12 97. I turn now to the Judgment of Williams J. Although the Applicant Brian De Wit is also 13 a defendant to the US Indictment along with the three Applicants, Mr. De Wit made
14 clear that the Cayman proceedings in which Mr. De Wit was involved was not related 15 to any request for mutual legal assistance (see paragraph 27 lines 7-10 of the Judgment
16 of Williams J.)

17
18 98. From my review of Williams J's judgment I could not identify any material facts
19 which would undermine or weaken the DPP's application before me on the 18th
20 December 2015. Secondly, I could not find any material facts which could support the 21 position of the three Applicants. Furthermore, and finally, as with Benjamin CJ's
22 judgment, Counsel for the Applicants has not identified any material facts in the 23 judgment of Williams J which would undermine the DPP's ex parte application or 24 advance the case for the Applicants.
25

1 99. For the above reasons, in my view the information in Williams J's judgment was not
2 material I would have taken into account in deciding whether or not to grant the ex
3 parte relief. Consequently, as with Benjamin CJ's judgment I find that I am not
4 required to address Hughes LJ's second question as to whether or not the ex parte
5 order should be discharged.

6
7 100. Although there was non-disclosure in December 2015, in my considered opinion, it
8 was not material non-disclosure and, adopting Slade LJ's dicta in Brink's Mat ⁶ "a 9 failure of disclosure is not a passport to setting aside ex parte relief without notice."

10
11 101. I accept that it was unfortunate that these two decisions were not included in the Court
12 bundle presented to me on the 18th December 2015. However, the Belizean judgment, 13 although in a related matter, was clearly decided on the fundamental reason that the 14 time limit to lay charges pursuant to the Law of Belize against the Applicants and 15 others in that jurisdiction had expired and, further, that the Belizean Financial 16 Investigation Unit failed to satisfy the Court in relation to the requirements under 17 Belizean Law. Therefore, whilst it makes for interesting reading, that judgment is not 18 relevant to the application which was before me on the 18th December 2015. Again,
19 whilst the judgment of Williams J was related to a co-defendant – Brian De Wit – I
20 cannot see how Williams J's decision in that matter would have affected the 21 application before me on the 18th December 2015 as the December 2015 application
22 related to specific accounts with CNB and Caledonian Bank in the name of the 23 Applicants.

⁶ [1988] 1 WLR 1350

1
2 102. Accordingly I reject the Applicants' third ground and dismiss the application to
3 discharge the ex-parte Restraint Order of the 18th December 2015.
4
5

6 Dated this the 27th April 2017

7
8

9 Honourable Mr. Justice Charles Quin Q.C.
10 Judge of the Grand Court

