ORIGINATING SUMMONS

TO: Eric Jackson and Ethel Jackson of P.O. Box 192, Grand Cayman KY1-1501.

LET THE DEFENDANTS, Eric Jackson and Ethel Jackson, within 14 days after service of this Summons on them, counting the day of service, return the accompanying Acknowledgement of Service to the Court Office, PO Box 495, George Town, Grand Cayman KY1-1106.

BY THIS SUMMONS which is issued on the application of the Plaintiff, The Cayman Islands Civil Service Association Co-Operative Credit Union Limited, the Plaintiff seeks relief pursuant to the provisions of the Registered Land Law (2004 Revision) as follows:-

1. In or about October 2003, the First Defendant Eric Jackson, a member of the Plaintiff Credit Union, applied to the Plaintiff for a loan which, together with the balance of previous loans made to him gave a total amount of borrowing of CI$89,522.79. This loan was to be secured by a Variation of Charge over the land registered in the name of the First Defendant and in the name of the Second Defendant Ethel Jackson, at the Lands and Survey Department as Savannah, Block 28D, Parcel 307 ("Parcel 307").

2. At all material times Parcels 307 was registered in the name of the First Defendant and the Second Defendant and on 13th October 2003 the Plaintiff as Chargee and the Defendants as Chargors executed a Variation of Charge in respect of Parcel 307.
3. The Variation of Charge dated 13th October 2003 provided that:-
 - 3.1 The Plaintiff would lend and the Defendants would borrow the principal sum of CI$89,522.79 ("the Principal Sum").
 - 3.2 Interest on the Principal Sum would accrue at the rate of 0.81% per month on the reducing balance.
4. The Variation of Charge dated 13th October 2003 also provided that:

"Section 72 of the Registered Land Law (1995 Revision) shall be varied in respect of this Charge and of any instrument or variation executed pursuant to this Charge, so as to entitle the Chargee immediately upon default by the Chargor in payment of the principal sum or any interest payable hereunder (as defined by Section 64(2) of the Registered Land Law (1995 Revision), or in the performance or observance of any agreement, expressed or implied herein to

 - a. appoint a receiver of the income of the Charged Property; or
 - b. sell the Charged Property by private treaty as well as by public auction; or
 - c. foreclose or enter into possession of the Charged Property; or
 - d. in the event that the Chargee does appoint a receiver or enters into possession of the Charged Property, exercise its powers of sale or foreclosure or appointment of a receiver at any time thereafter without further notice."
5. On and since September 2007 the Defendants have failed to pay the monthly instalments due in respect of the Principal Sum loaned and in respect of interest.
6. By letters dated 20th July 2009 served on the First Defendant on 27th July 2009 and served on the Second Defendant on 31st July 2009 Messrs. Ritch & Conolly, as Attorneys for the Plaintiff, served notices on the Defendants pursuant to the provisions of Section 64(2) and Section 72(1) of the Registered Land Law (2004 Revision) indicating that the sum secured by the Legal Charge was repayable three months after the service of the Section 64(2) notice and indicating that unless the balance of the sum secured by the Variation of Charge was repaid, or the loan repayments were brought up to date and thereafter the monthly sums due under the Loan Agreement were maintained, proceedings would be taken.

7. The Defendants have not made any payments in respect of the Principal Sum outstanding and/or interest, or any payment.
8. The Registered Land Law (2004 Revision) provides that once a notice of demand has been served pursuant to Section 64(2) the total amount of outstanding principal and interest becomes due and payable three months after service of that notice. The Plaintiff avers that the letters dated 20th July 2009 and served on 27th July 2009 and 31st July 2009 constituted such a notice pursuant to Section 64(2) and that the total amount outstanding became due on or after 31st October 2009.
9. The Registered Land Law (2004 Revision) by virtue of Section 72(1) provides that once there is a default in the payment of principal, or any other periodical payments and if such default continues for three months, the Chargee may serve on the Chargor notice in writing to pay the money owing, or to perform and observe the terms of the Charge, as the case may be.
10. The Registered Land Law (2004 Revision) by virtue of Section 72(2) provides that if a Chargor has not complied, within three months after the date of service of the s72(1) notice, the Chargee may sell the Charged Property. Therefore, on or since 31st October 2009 there has accrued a right to the Plaintiff to sell Parcel 307 and the Plaintiff seeks an order that it may do so.
11. In the premises, the Plaintiff seeks an order pursuant to the provisions of the Registered Land Law (2004 Revision) that:-
 - 11.1 an order for possession be made in terms that the Plaintiff be at liberty to sell Parcel 307 either by public auction or private treaty.
 - 11.2 the Plaintiff have leave pursuant to Grand Court Rules Order 45 Rule 3(1) and (2) to issue a Writ of Possession in respect of Parcel 307.
12. The Plaintiff also seeks an order that if after any sale of the Parcel 307 there should be any shortfall in the amount due and owing to the Plaintiff, the Plaintiff be at liberty to enter Judgment for the said shortfall, together with interest and costs.

Dated this 10th day of November 2009

DIRECTIONS FOR ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF SERVICE OF ORIGINATING SUMMONS

The accompanying form of Acknowledgment of Service should be completed by an Attorney acting on behalf of the Defendant or by the Defendant if acting in person. After completion it must be delivered or sent by post to the Law Courts, P.O. Box 495, George Town, Grand Cayman KY1-1106.

Notes for Guidance

1. Each Defendant (if there are more than one) is required to complete an Acknowledgment of Service and return it to the Courts Office.
2. If you wish to defend claims made in the originating summons, or intend to attend the proceedings and to participate in them so far as necessary (although not necessarily in an adversarial manner) you should tick the "Yes" box in paragraph 2 of the acknowledgment of service.
3. For the purpose of calculating the period of 14 days for acknowledging service, a writ served on the Defendant personally is treated as having been served on the day it was delivered to him.
4. Where the Defendant is sued in a name different from his own, the form must be completed by him with the addition in paragraph 1 of the words "sued as (the name stated on the Originating Summons)".
5. Where the Defendant is a FIRM and an attorney is not instructed, the form must be completed by a PARTNER by name, with the addition in paragraph 1 of the description "Partner in the firm of (.....)" after his name.
6. Where the Defendant is sued as an individual TRADING IN A NAME OTHER THAN HIS OWN, the form must be completed by him with the addition in paragraph 1 of the description "trading as (.....)" after his name.
7. Where the Defendant is a LIMITED COMPANY the form must be completed by an Attorney or by someone authorised to act on behalf of the Company, but the Company can take no further step in the proceedings without an Attorney acting on its behalf.
8. Where the Defendant is a MINOR or a MENTAL PATIENT, the form must be completed by an Attorney acting for a guardian ad litem.
9. A Defendant acting in person may obtain help in completing the form at the Courts Office.
