IMPORTANT

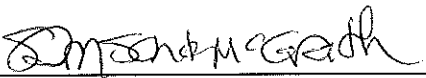

Directions for Acknowledgment of Service are given with the accompanying form.

General Indorsement

- 1 The Plaintiff Citco Trustees (Cayman) Limited ("CTCL") is, and at all times material to this claim has been, a company incorporated in the Cayman Islands carrying out trust and fiduciary services business.
- 2 The Defendant is employed by CTCL as a trust/corporate officer.
- 3 In the Defendant's role as a trust/corporate officer he had access to and was privy to various types of information that was confidential to the Plaintiff and its customers.
- 4 It was an express and/or alternatively implied term of the Defendant's employment and/or appointment with CTCL that, during (and after the conclusion of) his employment and/or other relationships with CTCL, that the Defendant would not disclose said confidential information to the public or to any third parties unless duly authorised to do so, or in some other manner permitted by Cayman Islands law, and would not otherwise misuse said confidential information.
- 5 On or about 28 December 2013, and again on 29 July 2014, in breach of the duties pleaded above, the Defendant voluntarily and without compulsion of law posted confidential information belonging to Citco and one of its clients.
- 6 As a result of the Defendant's breach of his duties to the Plaintiff, the Plaintiff has suffered loss and damage, full particulars of which will be provided.

- 7 The Plaintiff's claim is for damages and an injunction restraining the Defendant from committing further breaches of the express and/or implied duty not to misuse Confidential Information.
- 8 The Plaintiff further applies for an order that the Court file relating to this proceeding not be open to inspection by any party or other person except with prior leave of the Court pursuant to O.63, r.3(4) of the Grand Court Rules.
