AND TO: Joseph Imparto
In Care of Same Address.

THIS WRIT OF SUMMONS has been issued against you by the above named Plaintiff in respect of the claim set out on the next page.

Within 14 days after the service of this Writ on you, counting the day of service, you must either satisfy the claim or return to the Court Office, P.O. Box 495G, George Town, Grand Cayman, the accompanying Acknowledgement of Service stating therein whether you intend to contest these proceedings.

If you fail to satisfy the claim or to return the Acknowledgement within the time stated, or if you return the Acknowledgment without stating therein an intention to contest the proceedings, the Plaintiff may proceed with the action and judgment may be entered against you forthwith without further notice

Issued this ²³ day of ~~Sept~~ 1997

NOTE- This Writ may not be served later than 4 calendar months (or, if leave is required to effect service out of the jurisdiction, 6 months) beginning with the date of issue unless renewed by order of the Court.

IMPORTANT

Directions for Acknowledgment of Service are given with the accompanying form.

STATEMENT OF CLAIM

1. The Plaintiff is a company incorporated pursuant to the laws of the Cayman Islands and carries on business in the Cayman Islands as a provider of television broadcasting, advertising and related services.
2. The Defendant, The Undercover Story Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as "Undercover"), is a retail merchant of undergarments and related or similar items. It carries on business in the Seven Mile Beach area of Grand Cayman.
3. The Defendant, Joseph Imparto (hereinafter referred to as "Imparto"), is the management and sole operating mind of Undercover.
4. The Plaintiff and Defendant, Undercover, entered into an agreement dated May 24, 1995, which included the following terms:
 - a. The Plaintiff would broadcast 10 weekly advertisements of a 30 second duration for a six month period.
 - b. The monthly cost for said advertisements would be $550.00. Production costs would be charged in addition to the said advertisements, as required.
 - c. The Defendant, Undercover, would pay all invoices upon receipt.
5. The Plaintiff did broadcast advertisements and did provide production services from June, 1995 through to January 96, and rendered invoices in accordance with the said agreement.
6. The Defendant, Undercover has refused or otherwise failed to pay the invoices as rendered. The said refusal or failure to pay the invoices is a breach of the pleaded agreement.
7. As of the date of the issuance of this claim, the sum of $3,116.67 remains due and owing by the Defendant, Undercover, to the Plaintiff for services and invoices rendered under the said agreement.
8. The Defendant, Imparto, has unlawfully induced the above stated breach by directing Undercover not to pay invoices as rendered.
9. Alternatively, the Defendant, Imparto, has been unjustly enriched by and to the extent of the unpaid invoices in that funds that ought to have been paid to the Plaintiff were available to be paid to him as the proprietor of the business or as he otherwise directed.

10. Numerous requests have been made of the Defendants to make payment on the due sum but the Defendants have not made payment.

AND THE PLAINTIFF claims:

1. $3,116.67 for breach of contract, as against Undercover;
2. $3,116.67 for Inducement of Breach of Contract and Unjust Enrichment on the part of Imparto;
3. Interest upon the said damages pursuant to the Judicature Law (1995 Revision) and the Judgment Debts (Rates of Interest) Rules 1996 at the rate as prescribed of 7 3/8% or at such other rate as may be prescribed or as this Honourable Court deems just from the date of issuance of this proceeding; and
4. Costs.

DIRECTIONS FOR ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF SERVICE
OF WRIT OF SUMMONS

1. The accompanying form of Acknowledgement of Service should be completed by an Attorney acting on behalf of the Defendant or by the Defendant if acting in person.

After completion it must be delivered or sent by post to the Law Courts, P.O. Box 495, G.T. Grand Cayman.

2. A Defendant who states in his Acknowledgement of Service that he intends to contest the proceedings must also serve a defence on the Attorney for the Plaintiff (or on the Plaintiff if acting in person).

If a Statement of Claim is not endorsed on the Writ (i.e. the words "Statement of Claim" appear on the top of page 2). the defence must be served within fourteen (14) days after the time for acknowledging service of the Writ, unless in the meantime a summons for judgment is served on the Defendant.

If the Statement of Claim is endorsed on the Writ, the defence need not be served until fourteen (14) days after a Statement of Claim has been served on the Defendant.

If the Defendant fails to serve his defence within the appropriate time, the plaintiff, may enter judgment against him within further notice.

3. A Stay of Execution against the Defendant's goods may be applied for where the Defendant is unable to pay the money for which any judgment is entered. If a Defendant to an action for a debt or liquidated demand (i.e. a fixed sum) who does not intend to contest the proceedings states, in answer to question 3 in the Acknowledgement of Service, that he intends to apply for a stay, execution will be stayed for fourteen days after his Acknowledgment, but he must, within that time, issue a summons for a stay of execution, supported by an affidavit of his means. The affidavit should state any offer which the Defendant desires to make for payment of the money by instalments or otherwise.

Notes for Guidance

1. Each Defendant (if there are more than one) is required to complete an Acknowledgement of Service and return it to the Courts Office.
2. For the purpose of calculating the period of 14 days for acknowledging service, a Writ served on the Defendant personally is treated as having been served on the day it was delivered to him.
3. Where the Defendant is sued in a name different from his own, the form must be completed by him with the addition in paragraph 1 of the words "sued as (the name stated on the Writ of Summons)".
4. Where the Defendant is a FIRM and an Attorney is not instructed, the form must be completed by a PARTNER by name, with the addition in paragraph 1 of the description "Partner in the firm of (.....)" after his name.
5. Where the Defendant is sued as an individual TRADING IN A NAME OTHER THAN HIS OWN, the form must be completed by him with the addition in paragraph 1 of the description "trading as (.....)" after his name.
6. Where the Defendant is a LIMITED COMPANY the form must be completed by an Attorney or by someone authorised to act on behalf of the Company, but the Company can take no further step in the proceedings without an Attorney acting on its behalf.
7. Where the Defendant is a MINOR or a MENTAL PATIENT, the form must be completed by an Attorney acting for a guardian ad litem.
8. A Defendant acting in person may obtain help in completing the form at the Courts Office.
