7. We both agreed that I would give him a few days to try and get the vehicle start so it went and check his friend who would work on it and he told me that he was busy, he have work to do so he can't deal with it.
8. We tried to get it to start few more times and no luck. I called him and told him that I would need the money back because I really need a vehicle and it was only a few days since I gave him the money.
9. He said no because the vehicle is a good vehicle and it running and him done spend the money.
10. I said okay and gave him a few more days and told him he could give me half and half but he said no and that is unacceptable.
11. The Defendant, Jermain Brown has not made any effort to pay me back my money or made any effort to get the car up and running. I therefore need my money back and decide to take the matter to court for full compensation.

AND the Plaintiff claims:

- 1 The sum of CI$900.00
- 2 Fixed costs of $150.00 + $25.00 filing fee alternatively costs to be assessed.

PARTICULARS OF CLAIM

(Here set out in numbered paragraphs, the grounds upon which the Plaintiff claims that the Defendant is indebted to her or is liable to pay damages to her).

1. I was looking for a vehicle because I had just gotten my pension money and I saw a vehicle and went ahead and find out the owner as I got his contact from a friend of his and I contacted him.
2. He told me where to meet him. I met him by COX Dump Road saw that he was a friend I knew for years. His name is Jermain Brown.
3. His asking price was CI$1,500.00 but because he knew me he then said CI$1,000.00 and the following day I went to his work place and gave him CI$900.00 and told him I was going to the bank to get the rest and call him when he finish working.
4. Jermain assured me that the car was running and all I needed to do was to put the battery in and it would start. He then said it's a good buy and that I can't lose off this cause it running. I was okay with that as I had confidence in his words.
5. The vehicle was in need of a fender, control arm and a sub frame but that wasn't a problem because I know where to get those and cheap too. So I was about to start working on the vehicle and in realize that something was missing from the engine. I called him and he said to keep the $100 and use it get the part.
6. So I start to work on the car, bought a sub frame for $200 and changed out the damaged one. We decided to start the vehicle and it would not start. I called him and we then meet up after work. He had his mechanic friend to check it but he could not get it to start either.
