ORIGINATING SUMMONS

TO: URIEL SCOTT
43 Tennyson Street
Bodden Town, Grand Cayman
Cayman Islands

LET THE RESPONDENT, within 14 days after service of this Summons on him, counting the day of service, return the accompanying Acknowledgment of Service to the Courts office, P.O. Box 495, George Town, Grand Cayman.

BY THIS SUMMONS, which is issued on the application of Sophia Scott, Nicole Scott and Stephanie Scott of George Town, Grand Cayman, the Applicants seek the following relief:

1. An order pursuant to Order 80/30 and 80/21 of the Grand Court Rules 1995, dispensing with service of the Originating Summons herein upon the said Uriel Scott and also dispensing with the need for the Respondent to file an acknowledgment of service.
2. A determination or declaration for the purposes of s.14 of the Grand Court Law and s.18(b) of the Mental Health Law that the Respondent, Uriel Scott, of Grand Cayman, is a person incapable of managing his own affairs by reason of the fact that he is suffering from mental illness.
3. An order pursuant to Order 80/28 of the Grand Court Rules, s.14 of the Grand Court Law and s.18 of the Mental Health Law, appointing the Applicants as joint and several Guardians of the person of their father, Uriel Scott, of George Town, Grand Cayman, by reason of his mental incompetency as aforesaid, so that each and any of the Applicants (as shall be convenient to them) have all power and authority for administering his personal affairs, property and estate as more particularly set out at s.19(a) of the Mental Health Law, but in particular they shall additionally have the following specific powers:
 - a) Provide the required consent for and on behalf of the said Uriel Scott for any medical treatment, benefit or procedure which he may require.
 - b) Sign any documentation, whether medically or legally necessary for Uriel Scott's health care, insurance, treatment, or any other related medical need that may arise.
 - c) Sign and/or execute any and all documentation and/or instructions in relation to Uriel Scott's financial or medical affairs.
 - d) Sign and/or execute any and all documentation and/or instructions in relation to Uriel Scott's property (including any real estate).
 - e) Hire nursing or home care assistance for Uriel Scott, as and when required.
 - f) Pay or make application for payment of any salaries, expenses, hospital and medical charges relating to services or treatment provided to Uriel Scott and/or to pay all and any other bills and debts of whatsoever nature; and
 - g) Carry out and execute any and all other necessary or required actions, instructions or decisions which any of the Applicants consider necessary for Uriel Scott's wellbeing and care, now or in the future.
4. Such further and other relief as this Honourable Court may deem appropriate.

THE GROUNDS for this Originating Summons are:

The said Respondent suffers from mental illness sufficient to satisfy the criteria set out in s.14 of the Grand Court Law, as more particularly detailed in the evaluation of (i) Dr Nelson Iheonunekwu MBBS, DM, PG Cert (Nephrology), FACP dated 29 January 2021; and (ii) a psychiatric report prepared by Behavioral Health Associates Cayman dated 15 February 2021; and (iii) a report prepared by Dr. Stenette David MBBS., D.M. Psychiatry of the Health Services Authority dated 2 February 2021. The Applicants are the Respondent's daughters who have acted as his de facto Guardians in the recent past but the Respondent's dementia has progressed to the point where he has become incapable of looking after his own affairs and he requires the formal appointment in his own best interests of a court appointed Guardian or Guardians. Although the Respondent is married, he is separated from his wife, who consents to this application.

IF THE RESPONDENT does not acknowledge service, or if service is dispensed with, such judgment may be given or order made against or in relation to him as the Court may think just and expedient.

DATED this 15th day of March, 2021.
