(Here set out in numbered paragraphs the grounds upon which the Plaintiff claims that the Defendant is indebted to him or is liable to pay damages to him)

ber 2023 and moved out on the 1st of January 2024.

2. Once we moved in she told us that we could not use the washing machine and had to go to the laundry for washing, the AC would be turned in the night for 2 hours only all this had not been made known to us before moving in and we could not live under such conditions she should have told us before moving in.

3. She was always in the kitchen watching us we could not even cook never cooked there and would catch water in small dishes for us to use. She made the environment hard to live the place was hot and no lock on our bedroom door no privacy at all.

4. We asked her to give back the money and take away for the 10 days we had stayed and for the bills and she refused she said take me to court if you want to.

5. On the 1st of December night when we were leaving she called us and told us to wipe a watermark on the dressing table in our room and we wiped and cleaned it off and left. But after few days to our surprise she went to the police to make a report that we had mashed up her dresser and went ahead to go to our workplace talking to our work mates deformatory our characters and claiming that we damaged her place but we had left her place good.

AND the Plaintiff claims:

- 1 The sum of CC 950 unless the judge will decide
- 2 Interest in the sum of $ N/A To be assessed calculated at the prescribed rate from to date.
- 3 Fixed costs of $ 175, alternatively costs to be assessed.
