ORIGINATING SUMMONS

TO: Kevin C Bodden and Ellen M Solomon whose address for service is PO Box

LET THE DEFENDANTS, Kevin C Bodden and Zeita Ellen M Solomon within 14 days after service of this Summons on them, counting the day of service, return the accompanying acknowledgement of service to the Court office, P. O. Box 495 GT, George Town, Grand Cayman.

BY THIS SUMMONS which is issued on application of the Plaintiff, CIBC Bank and Trust Company (Cayman) Limited, the Plaintiff seeks relief pursuant to the Registered Land Law (1995 Revision).

- 1) On 27th September 1996 the Plaintiff as Chargee, and the Defendants as Chargor executed a legal charge ("the Charge") in respect of the land and building registered at the Lands and Survey Department as North Side, Block 57E, Parcel 142 ("the Property").
- 2) The Charge provided that:
 - 2.1) The Plaintiff would lend and the Defendants would borrow the principal sum of seventy-one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five Cayman Islands dollars (CI$71,925.00) ("the principal sum") which was to be secured as a first charge on the Property.
 - 2.2) Interest on the principal sum would accrue at the rate of 3% over the prime lending rate of the Plaintiff from time to time, which such prime lending rate was 11.25% per annum at the date of the Charge.

- 2.3) The Defendants would repay to the Plaintiff on demand the principal sum, or such portion of the principal sum which remained outstanding, together with accrued interest. Pending such demand, the Defendants would repay the principal sum, and accrued interest at such times and in such sums as the Plaintiff may specify.
 - 2.4) Immediately upon default by the Defendants in the payment of the principal sum, and the accrued interest, the Plaintiff would be entitled to serve Notice in writing on the Defendants to pay the money owing, and if the Defendants did not comply within one month of the date of service of such Notice, the Plaintiff may, without further Notice, sell the property by either public auction or private treaty.
 - 2.5) The Defendants shall pay, on demand, all fees and expenses incurred by the Plaintiff of, and incidental to the protection and enforcement from time to time of the Plaintiff's rights.
- 3) Thereafter, it was specified by the Plaintiff, that the Defendants would repay the principal sum, and accrued interest, by monthly instalments.
 - 4) In or about April 1998 the Defendants failed to pay the monthly instalments due in respect of the principal sum and interest, and have failed to make any subsequent payments of either principal or interest.
 - 5) By a letter dated 6th August 1999 handed to each of the Defendants on 30th August 1999, Attorneys for the Plaintiff, Messrs. Ritch & Conolly served Notice on the Defendants pursuant to Section 64 (2) of the Registered Land Law (1995 Revision) demanding payments of the balance of the principal sum, and accrued interest which as at 6th August 1999 amounted to CI$70,529.00 (principal) and CI$8,390.00 (interest).
 - 6) The Defendants have failed to pay the balance due of the principal sum, and accrued interest, or any other sums.
 - 7) The Property consists of residential premises, and a subsequent charge has been registered against the property, this charge being made between the Government of the Cayman Islands as Chargee, and the Defendants as Chargors. The charge in favour of the Government of the Cayman Islands is dated 31st October 1996 and was registered at the Lands and Surveys Department. This Charge secures a Guarantee in favour of the Defendants in the amount of CI$25,176.00.
 - 8) The provisions of the Registered Land Law (1995 Revision) provide that once a Notice of Demand has been served, pursuant to Section 64 (2) the total amount of principal and interest becomes payable 3 months after service of that Notice. The Plaintiff avers that the letter dated 6th August 1999 and handed to the Defendants as aforesaid, constitutes such Notice pursuant to Section 64 (2).
 - 9) The provisions of the Registered Land Law (1995 Revision) also provide that if default is made in payment of the principal sum or any interest, and continues for one month, a Chargee will then acquire a power to sell the property by public auction, after 3 months have elapsed, from service on the Chargors of a second notice demanding payment. Such provisions are subject to variation with the approval of the Court to allow the Chargee to sell by either private sale, or public auction and to serve a second shorter notice period.

- 10) The relief the Plaintiff therefore seeks in these proceedings is an Order of the Court that:
- 10.1) the variations in the Charge to the provisions of the Registered Land Law (1995 Revision) be allowed so that the Plaintiff is entitled to avoid the requirement to serve a second notice of three months but instead to serve a notice of one month;
 - 10.2) that on the expiry of the one month notice sought above, the Plaintiff be entitled to possession of the property forthwith;
 - 10.3) the Plaintiff be entitled forthwith on obtaining an Order under paragraph 10.2 to sell the property and that such sale to be by either private treaty or public auction, in good faith, and having regard to the interests of the Defendants;
 - 10.4) there be an order for costs in terms of the provision of the Charge.

Dated the 19th day of January 2000

Ritch & Conolly
