

IN THE GRAND COURT OF THE CAYMAN ISLANDS

Cause No. 648 of 2001

IN THE MATTER OF THE REGISTERED LAND LAW (1995 REVISION)
AND IN THE MATTER OF GEORGE TOWN SOUTH, BLOCK 14D, PARCEL 350H2

BETWEEN: CIBC BANK & TRUST COMPANY (CAYMAN) LIMITED PLAINTIFF

AND: MITCHELL BROWN FIRST DEFENDANT
SOPHIA RAMSEY-BROWN SECOND DEFENDANT

ORIGINATING SUMMONS

TO: Mitchell Brown and Sophia Ramsey-Brown of PO-Box 402GT, Grand Cayman.

LET THE DEFENDANTS, Mitchell Brown and Sophia Ramsey-Brown within 14 days after service of this Summons on them, counting the day of service, return the accompanying acknowledgement of service to the Court office, P. O. Box 495 GT, George Town, Grand Cayman.

BY THIS SUMMONS which is issued on application of the Plaintiff, CIBC Bank and Trust Company (Cayman) Limited, the Plaintiff seeks relief pursuant to the Registered Land Law (1995 Revision).

- 1) On 9th October 1998 the Plaintiff as Chargee, and the Defendants as Chargor executed a legal charge ("the Charge") in respect of the land and building registered at the Lands and Survey Department as George Town South, Block 14D, Parcel 350H2 ("the Property").
- 2) The Charge provided, inter alia, that:
 - 2.1) The Plaintiff would lend and the Defendants would borrow the principal sum of ninety-seven thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven Cayman Island dollars (CIS$97,787.00) ("the principal sum") which was to be secured as a first charge on the Property.
 - 2.2) Interest on the principal sum would accrue at the rate of 3% over the prime lending rate of the Plaintiff for Cayman Islands dollars from time to time, which such prime lending rate was (8.5%) per annum at the date of the Charge.

- 2.3) The Defendants would repay to the Plaintiff on demand the principal sum, or such portion of the principal sum which remained outstanding, together with accrued interest. Pending such demand, the Defendants would repay the principal sum, and accrued interest at such times and in such sums as the Plaintiff may specify.
 - 2.4) Immediately upon default by the Defendants in the payment of the principal sum, or of any accrued interest, the Plaintiff would be entitled to serve Notice in writing on the Defendants to pay the money owing, and if the Defendants did not comply within one month of the date of service of such Notice, the Plaintiff may, without further Notice, inter alia, sell the property by either public auction or private treaty.
 - 2.5) The Defendants shall pay, on demand, all fees and expenses incurred by the Plaintiff of, and incidental to the protection and enforcement from time to time of the Plaintiff's rights.
- 3) Thereafter, it was specified by the Plaintiff, that the Defendants would repay the principal sum, and accrued interest, by monthly instalments.
 - 4) In or about September 2000 the Defendants failed to pay the monthly instalments due in respect of the principal sum and interest, and have paid $5,259.00 since that date.
 - 5) By a letter dated 22nd February 2001 handed to the First Defendant on 9th June 2001 and the Second Defendant on 5th March 2001, attorneys for the Plaintiff, Messrs. Ritch & Conolly served Notice on the Defendants pursuant to Section 64 (2) of the Registered Land Law (1995 Revision) demanding payments of the balance of the principal sum, and accrued interest which, as at 22nd February 2001, amounted to CI$94,919.06 (principal) and CI$2,931.23 (interest).
 - 6) The Defendant, although making certain payments, have failed to pay the balance due of the principal sum, and accrued interest.
 - 7) The Property consists of residential premises, and a subsequent charge has been registered against the property. This charge being made between the Government of the Cayman Islands as Chargee, and the Defendants as Chargors. It is believed that the charge in favour of the Government of the Cayman Islands was registered at the Lands and Surveys Department and secures a Guarantee in favour of the Defendants.
 - 8) The provisions of the Registered Land Law (1995 Revision) provide that once a Notice of Demand has been served, pursuant to Section 64 (2) the total amount of principal and interest becomes payable 3 months after service of that Notice. The Plaintiff avers that the letter dated 22nd February 2001 and handed to the Defendants as aforesaid, constitutes such Notice pursuant to Section 64 (2).

- 9) The provisions of the Registered Land Law (1995 Revision) also provide that if default is made in payment of the principal sum or any interest, and continues for one month, a Chargee will then acquire a power to sell the property by public auction, after 3 months have elapsed, from service on the Chargors of a second notice demanding payment. Such provisions are subject to variation with the approval of the Court to allow the Chargee to sell by either private sale, or public auction and to serve a second shorter notice period.
- 10) The relief the Plaintiff therefore seeks in these proceedings is an Order of the Court that:
- 10.1) the variations in the Charge to the provisions of the Registered Land Law (1995 Revision) be allowed so that the Plaintiff is entitled to avoid the requirement to serve a second notice of three months;
 - 10.2) the Plaintiff be entitled to possession of the property forthwith;
 - 10.3) the Plaintiff be entitled to sell the property and that such sale be by either private treaty or public auction, in good faith, and having regard to the interests of the Defendants;
 - 10.4) that after the sale of the said property in accordance with the order sought herein, should there be any shortfall in the amount due and owing to the Plaintiff, that the Plaintiff be at liberty to enter Judgement for the said shortfall together with interest and costs;
 - 10.5) the costs of these proceedings be added to the principal and interest due from the Defendants and be deducted from the proceeds of the sale;

Dated the 12th day of October 2001
