ORIGINATING SUMMONS

TO: Derek and Barbara McLaughlin whose address for service is PO Box 30040, Seven Mile Beach, Grand Cayman.

LET THE DEFENDANTS, Derek and Barbara McLaughlin within 14 days after service of this Summons on them, counting the day of service, return the accompanying acknowledgement of service to the Court office, P. O. Box 495 GT, George Town, Grand Cayman.

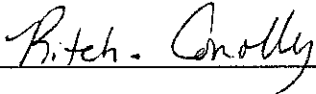

BY THIS SUMMONS which is issued on application of the Plaintiff, Cayman National Bank Ltd, the Plaintiff seeks relief pursuant to the Registered Land Law (1995 Revision).

- 1) On 26th July 1996 the Plaintiff as Chargee, and the Defendants as Chargor executed a legal charge ("the Legal Charge") in respect of the land and building registered at the Lands and Survey Department as Spotts, Block 24E, Parcel 131 ("the Property").
- 2) The Charge provided, inter alia, that:
 - 2.1) The Plaintiff would lend and the Defendants would borrow the principal sum of one hundred and ten thousand one hundred and sixty Cayman Island dollars (CIS$110,160.00) ("the principal sum") which was to be secured as a first charge on the Property.
 - 2.2) Interest on the principal sum would accrue at the rate of 3% over the prime lending rate of the Plaintiff for Cayman Islands dollars from time to time, which such prime lending rate was 11.25% per annum at the date of the Charge.
 - 2.3) The Defendants would repay to the Plaintiff on demand all monies and liabilities which shall for the time being be owing or incurred to the Plaintiff by the Defendants. Pending such demand, the Defendants would repay to the Plaintiff such monthly or other sums as the Plaintiff shall from time to time specify.

- 2.4) Immediately upon default by the Defendants in payment of the principal sum, or of any interest payable thereunder, or in the performance or observance of any agreement, expressed or implied, therein, the Plaintiff would be entitled to serve on the Defendants notice in writing to pay the money owing, or to perform and observe the agreement as the case may be, and further that if the Defendants do not comply within one month of the date of service of such notice, the Plaintiff may thereupon either appoint a receiver of the income of the property, the subject of the security, or sell the property the subject of the security by private treaty as well as by public auction.
- 3) Thereafter, it was specified by the Plaintiff, that the Defendants would repay the principal sum, and accrued interest, by monthly instalments.
- 4) On 20th March 1998 the Defendants executed a Variation of Charge which had the effect of increasing the indebtedness by CI$5,000.00, bringing the total at that date secured by the Variation of Charge to CI$115,160.00.
- 5) In or about September 2001 the Defendants failed to pay the monthly instalments due in respect of the principal sum and interest, and have failed to make any subsequent payments of either principal or interest.
- 6) By a letter dated 28th May 2001, sent by registered post to the Defendants, the Plaintiff duly served notice on the Defendants pursuant to the Registered Land Law (1995 Revision) demanding payment of the balance of the principal sum and accrued interest which, as at 28th May 2001, amounted to CI$103,662.01 (principal) and CI$857.70 (interest).
- 7) Despite service of such notice, the Defendants have failed to pay the balance due of the principal sum, and accrued interest, or indeed any other sums.
- 8) The Property consists of residential premises. It is believed that the property is resided in by the Defendants.
- 9) The provisions of the Registered Land Law (1995 Revision) provide that once a Notice of Demand has been served, pursuant to Section 64 (2) the total amount of principal and interest becomes payable three months after service of that Notice. The Plaintiff avers that the letter dated 28th May 2001 and served on the Defendants as aforesaid, constitutes such Notice.
- 10) The provisions of the Registered Land Law (1995 Revision) also provide that if default is made in payment of the principal sum, or any interest, and continues for one month, the Chargee will then acquire a power to sell the property by public auction after three months have elapsed, from service on the Chargors of a second notice demanding payment. Such provisions are subject to variation with the approval of the Court to allow the Chargee to sell by either private sale or public auction, and to serve a second shorter notice period.

- 11) The relief the Plaintiff therefore seeks in these proceedings is an Order of the Court that:
- 11.1) the variations in the charge to the provisions of the Registered Land Law (1995 Revision) be allowed, so that the Plaintiff is entitled to avoid the requirement to serve a second notice of three months, but instead to serve a further notice of one month;
 - 11.2) upon the expiry of the notice provided for in paragraph 11.1 above that the Plaintiff be entitled to possession of the property forthwith;
 - 11.3) the Plaintiff be entitled to sell the property and that such sale be by either private treaty or public auction in good faith and having regard to the interests of the Defendants;
 - 11.4) after the sale of the said property in accordance with the order sought herein, should there be any shortfall in the amount due and owing to the Plaintiff that the Plaintiff be at liberty to enter judgment against the Defendants for the said shortfall, together with interest and costs;
 - 11.5) the costs of these proceedings be added to the principal and interest due from the Defendants and be deducted from the proceeds of sale.

Dated the 30th day of January 2002.
