IN THE GRAND COURT OF THE CAYMAN ISLANDS

IN THE MATTER OF THE REGISTERED LAND LAW (1995 REVISION)
AND IN THE MATTER OF NORTH EAST COAST, BLOCK 61A, PARCEL 47

BETWEEN: CAYMAN NATIONAL BANK LTD PLAINTIFF

AND: DONNAVAN MCFIELD FIRST DEFENDANT
CAREY MCFIELD SECOND DEFENDANT

ORIGINATING SUMMONS

TO: Donnavan McField and Carey McField whose address for service is PO Box 30498, Seven Mile Beach, Grand Cayman.

LET THE DEFENDANTS, Donnavan McField and Carey McField, within 14 days after service of this Summons on them, counting the day of service, return the accompanying acknowledgement of service to the Court office, P. O. Box 495 GT, George Town, Grand Cayman.

BY THIS SUMMONS which is issued on application of the Plaintiff, Cayman National Bank Ltd., the Plaintiff seeks relief pursuant to the Registered Land Law (1995 Revision).

1. On 12th September 1991 the Plaintiff as Chargee, and the Defendants as Chargors executed a Legal Charge (“the Legal Charge”) in respect of the land registered at the Lands and Survey Department as North East Coast, Block 61A, Parcel 47 (“the Property”).
2. The Charge provides, inter alia, that:
 - 2.1 The Plaintiff would lend and the Defendants would borrow the principal sum of Twenty-Five Thousand Cayman Islands Dollars (CI$25,000.00) (“the principal sum”) which was to be secured as a charge on the Property.
 - 2.2 Interest on the principal sum will accrue at the rate of 6% per annum above the Cayman Islands Dollar base rate as determined by the Plaintiff from time to time.
 - 2.3 The Defendants will repay to the Plaintiff on demand the principal sum together with any interest then due. Pending such demand, the Defendants will repay to the Plaintiff such monthly or other sums as the Plaintiff shall from time to time specify.

- 2.4 Immediately upon default by the Defendants in payment of the principal sum, or of any interest payable thereunder, or in the performance or observance of any agreement, expressed or implied therein, the Plaintiff will be entitled to serve a notice on the Defendants to pay the money owing and to provide that if the Defendants do not comply within one month of the date of service of such notice the Plaintiff may appoint a receiver of the income of the property or sell the property by private treaty as well as by public auction, without further notice.
3. In or about September 2001 the Defendants failed to pay the monthly instalments due in respect of the principal sum and interest, and have failed to make any subsequent payments of either principal or interest.
 4. By letter dated 18th March 2002, sent by registered post to the Defendants, the Plaintiff duly served Notice on the Defendants pursuant to the Registered Land Law (1995 Revision) demanding payment of the balance of the principal sum and accrued interest which, as at that date, amounted to CI$42,500.00 (principal) and CI$15,346.67 (interest and other charges).
 5. On the same date, a further demand under the Registered Land Law (1995 Revision) was served demanding the same sums. Such demand was made pursuant to Section 72 of the Registered Land Law (1995 Revision), as amended by Clause 11 of the charge.
 6. On 9th August 2002 the Plaintiff, through its attorneys, served a further demand on the Defendants to pay the sums outstanding within one month of the date of service of the demand notice.
 7. Despite service of these Notices, the Defendants have failed to pay the balance due of the principal sum and accrued interest.
 8. The provisions of the Registered Land Law (1995 Revision) provide that once a Notice of Demand has been served pursuant to Section 64 (2) the principal and interest becomes payable three months after service of that demand and the Plaintiff avers that the letter dated 18th March 2002 served on the Defendants by registered post constitutes Notice under Section 64 (2) of the Registered Land Law (Revised).
 9. Section 72 of the Registered Land Law (1995 Revision) provides that if default is made in payment of the principal sum, or any interest, and continues for one month, the Chargee will then acquire a power to sell the property by public auction after three months have elapsed, from service on the Chargors of a second notice demanding payment. Such provisions are subject to variation with the approval of the Court to allow the Chargee to sell by either private sale or public auction, and to serve a second shorter notice period. The Legal Charge in this action contains such a provision in Clause 11 as set out in paragraph 2.4 above.

10. The relief the Plaintiff therefore seeks in these proceedings is an Order of the Court that:

- 10.1 the variations in the charge to the provisions of the Registered Land Law (1995 Revision) be allowed, so that the Plaintiff is entitled to avoid the requirement to serve any further notice, having served notice under Section 64(2) of the Law and notice under the terms of the Legal Charge;
- 10.2 the Plaintiff be entitled to sell the property and that such sale be by either private treaty or public auction in good faith and having regard to the interests of the Defendants;
- 10.3 for the purposes of any such sale, the Plaintiff be entitled to possession of the property;
- 10.4 after the sale of the said property in accordance with the order sought herein, should there be any shortfall in the amount due and owing to the Plaintiff that the Plaintiff be at liberty to enter judgment against the Defendants for the said shortfall, together with interest and costs;
- 10.5 the costs of these proceedings be added to the principal and interest due from the Defendants and be deducted from the proceeds of sale.

Dated the day of October 2002.
