By this Summons, which is issued on the application of the Attorney General of the Cayman Islands, the Plaintiff seeks an Order of the Court, for reasonable cause shown, suspending the Defendant from practising as an attorney-at-law in the Islands for such period as the Court thinks fit or in the alternative an Order that the Defendant's name be struck off the Court Roll pursuant to section 7(1) of the Legal Practitioners Law (2003 Revision) or such other Order as the Court thinks fit.

The grounds upon which the Plaintiff seeks the aforesaid Order are that the Defendant has committed an act of professional misconduct as an attorney-at-law in the Islands contrary to common law.

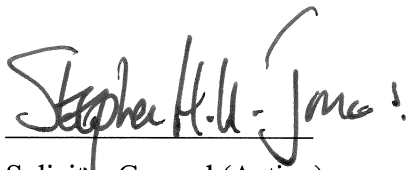

PARTICULARS OF PROFESSIONAL MISCONDUCT

AND TAKE NOTICE that the Plaintiff intends at the hearing of this Summons to rely on the facts and matters referred to in proceedings before The Honourable Justice Kellock on the 10th April 2002 in Cause Number 792 of 2002 a certified transcript of which proceedings are attached to this Summons.

If the Defendant does not acknowledge service, such judgment may be given or order made against or in relation to him as the Court may think just and expedient.
