THE LEGAL PRACTITIONERS (STUDENTS) REGULATIONS 2000

APPLICATION TO REGISTER ARTICLES

(Regulation 17)

THESE ARTICLES OF CLERKSHIP are entered into on the 27th day of October, 2003

BETWEEN: GRAHAM FRASER RITCHIE of CHARLES ADAMS, RITCHIE & DUCKWORTH of P.O. Box 709 GT, Grand Cayman, B.W.I. (hereinafter called "the Principal") of the ONE PART

AND: ANAÏCK GOËLO of P.O. Box 10910, Grand Cayman, B.W.I. (hereinafter called "the Articled Clerk") of the OTHER PART

WITNESS as follows:-

1. The principal hereby takes the Articled Clerk as his clerk for the period of 18 months from the date hereof or for such lesser period as the Legal Advisory Council may agree to (hereinafter called "the term").
2. The Articled Clerk binds herself to the Principal to serve the Principal for the term.
3. The Articled Clerk covenants with the Principal as follows:-
  - (a) Honestly, diligently and faithfully and to the best of her ability to serve the Principal throughout the term as his Articled Clerk to the profession of an Attorney-at-Law;
  - (b) Not at any time to deal improperly with the property of the Principal which shall be deposited in her hands or entrusted to her custody or possession;
  - (c) To attend at the offices of the Principal during normal business hours and not to absent herself from the service of the Principal without the consent of the Principal;
  - (d) At all times during the term to comply with and obey the laws of the Cayman Islands and such lawful and reasonable instruction or direction the Principal may from time to time issue;

- (e) During the term to complete and maintain (in the form in the Schedule to these Articles) a record (hereinafter called "the Diary") of her work and experience and thereafter retain it until she has been admitted as an Attorney-at-Law;
- (f) To indemnify the Principal against any loss or damage or prejudice caused by the misbehavior, neglect or improper conduct of the Articled Clerk and to make good and reimburse to the Principal the amount and value thereof PROVIDED that this covenant shall not apply to any act or omission without malice of the Articled Clerk which would have constituted professional negligence if committed or omitted by an Attorney-at-Law;
- (g) To apply herself diligently to any course of instruction which the Principal permits the Articled Clerk to attend during working hours and to permit the Principal to enquire of any institution or tutor as to the progress and attendance of the Articled Clerk at any course of instruction and as to the result of any examination;

4. The Principal covenants with the Articled Clerk as follows;

- (a) To accept and take the Articled Clerk as his clerk and to the best of his ability to teach and instruct the Articled Clerk or cause her to be taught and instructed by any lawyer in the employment of the Principal in such manner as the Principal now practices or may during the term practice to provide the Articled Clerk with the opportunity to learn and assimilate the basic skills and characteristics associated with the practice and profession of an Attorney-at-Law and in particular to:-
  - i. provide the Articled Clerk with opportunity of assimilating the principles of professional conduct and etiquette and to learn by practice the following basic skills:-
    1. drafting;
    2. opinion writing;
    3. interviewing;
    4. researching;
    5. office administration, routines and procedures; and
  - ii. give the Articled Clerk the opportunity of being involved in practical and procedural work in the following fields:-
    6. Trusts and Succession;
    7. Family Law;

8. Litigation: Criminal and Civil;
  9. Commercial Law;
  10. Employment Law;
  11. Company and Partnership Law;
  12. Land Law Conveyancing;
- (b) To use all reasonable endeavours to ensure that each calendar month either he or another delegated by him for the purpose will be available to inspect and sign the Diary which the Articled Clerk has kept and to discuss informally with her such general points as may have arisen thus far during the term.
  - (c) Subject as hereinafter appears, to pay monthly in arrears to the Articled Clerk from the day first above written during the term, salary at a rate of US$4,000.00 per month, such salary to be reviewed after 1 year.
  - (d) To allow the Articled Clerk in addition to Saturdays, Sundays and Statutory holidays, 20 working days holiday in each year at such time or times as the Principal may agree with the Articled Clerk.
  - (e) To allow the Articled Clerk 10 working days paid absence on account of illness in each period of twelve months during the term provided that where the absence on any one occasion exceeds 3 days, the same shall be supported by a medical certificate.
  - (f) To contribute and invest monthly an amount equivalent to 5% of the Articled Clerk's monthly salary into a pension fund on her behalf.
  - (g) To contribute one-half of the premium payable to ensure the Articled Clerk's coverage under the medical health plan maintained by Charles Adams, Ritchie & Duckworth.
5. On expiration of the term use its best endeavours at the cost of the Articled Clerk to procure the Articled Clerk, to be admitted as an Attorney-at-Law provided the Articled Clerk shall have complied with the provisions of this deed and in all respects qualified herself to be admitted to practice as an Attorney-at-Law.
  6. Any difficulty or dispute between the Articled Clerk and the Principal concerning the fulfillment of the relevant provisions of these Articles or the conduct of either party in relation to these Articles may be referred by either of them to the Legal Advisory Council (established under section 29 of the Legal Practitioner's Law, 1991) with a view to such difficulty or dispute being settled in conciliation. If as the consequence of a reference to it under this Clause that Council determines that any of the covenants in Clauses 4(a)(i), 4(a)(ii), 4(a)(iii) or 4(b) hereof have not been or have no reasonable likelihood of being complied with by the Principal then the Principal will give the Articled Clerk the opportunity to be released from these Articles.

These Articles of Clerkship shall be construed in accordance with the Laws of the Cayman Islands.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the parties have hereunder set their respective hands and seals on the 29th day of October, 2003.
